21 - What course assignments or activities, in-class or out-of-class, were most helpful?

Response Rate 13/18 (72.22%)

- Conferences and discussions.
- the peer reviews for the essays
- Most helpful was writing essays every week ish and keeping on top of writing skills
- Out-of-class we had one on one zoom conferences which were very helpful in the terms of feedback and also provided a nice break from always going to class. Of course class should be required but sometimes it is overwhelming so to have this break was nice.
- The ten minute zoom sessions about the paper we are writing at the time are the most helpful.
- The online one on one conferences were the most useful to me because she gave me so much feedback and helpful suggestions to polish my paper.
- One on One conferences were very helpful because it helped my writing develop into something more detailed and specific.
- The essay that was a memoir because I ended up learning more about myself.
- I think the 1 on 1 zoom conferences were very helpful because we got personalized feedback to help our writing.
- The profile essay was cool to me!
- The profile was most helpful because it was the most different from anything I had written in the past.
- Individual conferences for each paper assigned.
- I'd say the reading was the most helpful

22 - What course assignments or activities, in-class or out-of-class, were least helpful?

Response Rate 14/18 (77.78%)

- Daily Quiz
- the quizzes over the readings
- Nothing
- least helpful were the in class quizzes
- The assignments of reading the provided material outside of class were least helpful because we would read them in class anyways. In class, when we would read I found it not helpful that we had to take turns reading passages out loud. For some people, this can cause a lot of anxiety so I think it'd be best if we read silently to ourselves. This would also force everyone to pay more attention because sometimes if you aren't reading you can get distracted in your own thoughts and not pay attention.
- The class readings on the type of paper we were about to write. They were still helpful though.
- Honestly probably the quizzes on the articles.
- None, each piece of work that we did helped prepare us for the assignments.
- The readings.
- I don't think the peer reviews were the most helpful because students don't always give the best feedback
- The evaluation essay is just a little odd.
- Sometimes some of the peer editing was unhelpful because it was hard to critique friends honestly.
- The quizzes we would take on a reading.
- There isn't really anything I didn't find helpful
