20 - In what ways has this course helped you to improve your writing, reading, and/or critical thinking skills?
Response Rate	14/29 (48.28%)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing every week for the poems we read and talked about • It helped me to really understand an try to figure out the underlying meaning of poems. • It has been a long time since I have had to write a standardized paper. • It made me think more about writing, more specifically poetry, and how everything has a different "meaning" or interpretation to different people. • It helped me in looking at poems in different ways, and to see the evolution of poetry. • Got me to understand poetry more • This course has helped me reading poetry because it made me realize that you make the poem your own once you read it. I always thought there was a whole meaning behind the poem but this course helped me understand the poems better. • I am able to break apart text a lot better • Shes helped me with being able to understand and interepret what im reading • I think it has helped my writing skills certainly and my appreciation for poetry. • She was a wonderful communicator, teacher and overall person she cares so much for students and literature in hopes that we value poetry in our education and in our personal lives. • It allowed me to use the skills I learned in class to analyze poetry as well be able to write my own. • By discussing poems in class and having a better understanding. Doing reading journals helped with writing and thinking about each poem. • Professor Bakshi made it so much easier for me to read and understand poetry. I never really enjoyed reading it before because I don't enjoy trying to interpret things that are in between the lines I guess, but she taught us ways to easily understand poetry and made it much more enjoyable.

21 - What course assignments or activities, in-class or out-of-class, were most helpful?

Response Rate 14/29 (48.28%)

- Quizzes and Reading Journal
- Having to read all of the poems before class
- Reading journal
- The in-class discussions were most helpful. The instructor had more knowledge of and interest in the subject than anyone in the class, so I felt like no one knew what we were supposed to do or think until she explained it.
- Weekly Journals
- The reading each week.
- The reading journals because it helped get my thoughts out before coming to class and talking about all the poems.
- Quizzes on Tuesdays
- quizzes
- The reading journals and weekly quizzes.
- The in- class discussions.
- The in class quizzes were the most helpful along with the presentations on Thursdays.
- Reading Journals and quizzes
- The reading journals were very helpful to learn and understand the poets and poetry we were reading for the week. Instead of just discussing what we thought of the pieces, we broke down the form, content, what we hear, and what we see. It was really helpful to break down the poetry like that and made it easier to understand.
